The John and Maureen Galvin/Historic Madison, Inc. Scholarship

Purpose: Historic Madison, Inc., founded in 1960, is one of Indiana's oldest and most prestigious historic preservation organization. John Galvin served as president from 1981 – 2010. Under his leadership Historic Madison, Inc. through its many programs, supported the preservation and improvement of Madison's historic district so that it attained status as a National Historic Landmark District, the highest designation a historic district can receive. Galvin also led a successful endowment campaign, oversaw the award winning preservation of the Schroeder Saddle Tree Factory, preserved one of America's earliest remaining African Methodist Episcopal church buildings and added additional properties to the HMI portfolio of historic structures, including the home of Madison's famous architect, Francis Costigan. The scholarship award honors Galvin's community and preservation related successes while recognizing Maureen Galvin's support for and encouragement of these worthy accomplishments in the hopes of inspiring future generations of preservationists, architects and historians to do likewise.

Eligible applicants: The scholarship will be awarded to qualified high school seniors pursuing a degree in historic preservation, architecture, American History or related field and will be a graduate of a high school in Jefferson County, Indiana. Scholarship recipients will be selected by a committee approved by the Board of Directors of Historic Madison, Inc.

Required: Two letters of recommendation from high school teachers and/or counselors and a one page essay explaining why the applicant wishes to pursue the intended degree. Include evidence of your interest in the historic preservation/related field. What is your intended potential leadership in the field of preservation? Briefly touch upon any work, internship or related volunteer experience/community service that you may have already.

Criteria:

- This award is generally for tuition only. Therefore, students already receiving a full-tuition award from a college or another source are not eligible to apply.
- This scholarship is not renewable.
- Employees and board members of Historic Madison, Inc./Historic Madison Foundation, Inc., as well as family members of the aforementioned individuals, are ineligible. This includes spouses, lineal descendants and their spouses, and brothers and sisters and their spouses. The period of ineligibility extends through the calendar year following the year in which the volunteer position or employment ends.
- Family members of selection advisory committees are ineligible, including spouses, lineal descendants and their spouses, and brothers and sisters and their spouses.

Selections will be based upon application materials, academic performance, a demonstrated interest in the related field such as an internship, volunteer work, community service etc.
